Each month, recently accepted manuscripts will be added, and as the final version of the articles are published in an AAIDD journal, the accepted manuscripts will be removed from the site.

Coming October 2019: Special Issue of *Intellectual and Developmental Disabilities

Be on the lookout for a special issue of Intellectual and Developmental Disabilities coming this October titled "From Invisible to Visible to Valued: Finding Adults with Intellectual and Developmental Disabilities in Population Health Data." The issue will be guest edited by Susan M. Havercamp and Gloria L. Krahn, and will feature work by Lynda Anderson, Robert Balogh, Alixe Bonardi, Elsa Haile, Sherri Larson, Helen Leonard, Amanda Reichard, and Marc J. Tassé. Learn more about the following topics:

- Why is it important to identify adults with IDD in national surveys?
- What can we learn from administrative data? Data linkage?
- How can technology contribute to health surveillance?

New Text Available on Community Living

AAIDD has just published a new resource that is ideal as a textbook or as a staff development tool: Community Living and Participation for People With Intellectual and Developmental Disabilities (Amy S. Hewitt and Kelly M. Nye-Lengerman, Editors). Community Living and Participation for People With Intellectual and Developmental Disabilities addresses the complex and ever-evolving dimensions related to both the place of community and the feeling of community, including living arrangements, work, other daytime activities, financial resources, relationships, personal interests, health and well-being, faith, opportunities for learning and personal growth, self-determination and informed decision making, and rights and responsibilities as a citizen.
